

LIFESTYLE KITCHENS

MaryJo Camp, CKD, CBD, CID

FEBRUARY 21, 2008 5:30-8:30 P.M.

01.24.2008 10:07 EST

Explore current lifestyle trends and learn how they affect consumer choices for the kitchen. MaryJo Camp, CKD, CBD, CID will discuss generational buying patterns (Baby Boomers, Gen X, Gen Y,) the green explosion, loft living, bigger is better), small indulgences and other trends and design solutions that satisfy these needs. While discussing these trends and how they influence decisions, we will review what products - old and new - are available in the marketplace. Appliances are migrating to other areas of the home; MaryJo will share design solution for these spaces. Clients needs are changing and homes are changing with them, understand what motivates the decisions and your designs will successfully support your clients' lifestyle.

MARYJO CAMP, CKD, CBD, CID is a 30 year veteran of the Kitchen and Bath Industry. As an award-winning designer, she has held many positions within the field, including owning her own design firm and showroom. MaryJo is an adjunct professor at Canada College, an NKBA Endorsed College in Redwood City, California. She is active in the National Kitchen and Bath Association and is Vice President of the California Council for Interior Design Certification. In the past five years, MaryJo has designed and overseen construction of many state-of-the-industry appliance showrooms demonstrating the latest ideas in kitchens. Currently, MaryJo is National Vice President of Marketing for FBA Holdings—Florida Builder Appliances, Standards of Excellence, and Westar—premier appliance source for the construction industry with 24 showrooms serving Florida, California, Arizona, and Nevada.
