LITTLE THINGS TO DO TO MAKE 2009 TURN OUT FINE

(.15 CEU)

While the media may be telling us of doom and gloom, each business can control its own destiny. 2009 promises to be a year full of challenges and surprises. Perhaps the biggest surprise is how one business will have a disastrous year and another, in the same industry, will have its best year ever. Many of the aspects that affect your business are out of your control, but most are not. Tom Shay will share the aspects of how 2009 can be the year you want and need it to be. His list of management tips will include those items that you need to do, those you need to not do, and those you need to stop doing immediately.

Make a wise investment in yourself and your business by spending the morning with Tom Shay to hear about, "Little Things to Do to Make '09 Turn Out Fine".

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2008
10:00AM-1:30PM

8406 SPEEDWAY BOULEVARD
HARDEVILLE, SC 29927
843-784-7214

Tom Shay's experiences as a fourth-generation merchant provide him with the knowledge and background to present tried-and-proven ideas to assist owners, managers, and staff with the day-to-day operations of their businesses. During the 25-plus years when Tom was a part of the family business, the stores were ongoing laboratories for the management and promotional techniques that are the backbone of the seminars Tom now produces.

He presents proven and time-tried ideas on the topics of promoting, customer loyalty, business-management design, employee skills development, and financial control.

As a speaker, Tom has earned the Certified Speaking Professional (CSP) distinction, an honor that has been earned by fewer than 8 percent of speakers worldwide. In addition, Tom has provided proven business-building ideas through his writings in over 60 trade publications.

Tom and his wife Marilyn reside in St. Petersburg, Florida, with their twin sons Darren and Blake.

NKBA Applications will be available at the meeting.

Restaurants & Bars

Savannah is known for its great food, and both River Street and City Market have many good eating establishments. Ask at the hotel desk for a list of local recommendations. Following are just a few of many well known downtown restaurants:

- Planter's Tavern, 23 Abercorn St.
- 17 Hundred 90, 307 E. President St.
- Il Pasticcio, 2 E. Broughton St.
- Chart House, 202 W. Bay St. (Barnard St. Ramp)
- Vic's on the River, 26 E. Bay St.
- The Lady & Sons, 102 West Congress St.
- Huey's, 115 E. River St.

West Broughton Street, Bay Street, City Market, and River Street are all famous for great night life places with all types of music. Again, the hotel concierge may have suggestions. Just a few night spots include:

- Marshall House, 123 E. Broughton St.
- Pink House, 23 Abercorn St.
- Jazz'd Tapas Bar, 52 Barnard St.
- Savannah Smiles Dueling Pianos, 314 Williamson St.
