Max Isley has been the owner and president of Hampton Kitchens of Raleigh, Inc. in North Carolina since 1974. He is a licensed general contractor and has been a Certified Kitchen Designer since 1981 and a CMKBD since 2002. Max has designed kitchens all over the United States and the world. REMODELING magazine named his firm as one of the fifty best remodeling firms in the country. Max has been a design judge with the National Kitchen & Bath Association. He is also an international speaker and consultant to the kitchen and bath industry and is an instructor for kitchen design and remodeling workshops for consumers. He is also a business consultant and coach.

Articles about Max have been published in Better Homes & Gardens, Woman's Day, Kitchen & Bath Design News, Kitchen & Bath Business and he was on the cover of Remodeling Magazine. According to an article in Kitchen & Bath Design News, Isley's business savvy saved his firm when sales flattened out in a changing market.

Max is the former president of his local NKBA chapter and served two terms on the NKBA Board of Directors for a total of 8 years; the last two years he served as Treasurer and then Secretary. Max was appointed as a founding member of the advisory board for the interior design program at East Carolina University in North Carolina. In addition, he is an advisor to the Center for Accessible Housing of the School of Design at North Carolina State University. Max actively promotes efforts to provide accessible housing for persons with disabilities. According to written comments from numerous seminar attendees, Max knows how to educate as well as entertain his audience.
